ON ELECTION OF CITY COMMISSIONERS

To the Editor Evening News:

One of the greatest impediments to social, educational and governmental progress in this country is the "professional" politician, the "chronic" office seeker, the standpatter for his party or his creed. To these men personal and political preference take precedence of patriotism. I have in mind two organizations which illustrate perfectly the kind of politics which I have in mind—Tammy Hall, with her Murphys and the Roman Catholic Hierarchy with its "Cardinal" Gibbons. Both of these organizations will be found in great influence about Baltimore when a candidate for president is to be nominated. "Tammy" has already engaged 1,000 rooms for her "braves." But is Tammy trying to save the country? Not much. The whole movement is by men in office, or who have friends and dependents in office, and who want to hold on to the seat of the best cow in the pen.

Now the people are growing unindurably tired of this kind of politics. Real democracy is a protest against government of the few, the officeholders, by the few and for the few, whether it finds its expression through La Follette or Gore. The party harness sets today more lightly than ever, and the party lash has lost its power. The people are demanding the right to name themselves, even so high an official as the president of the United States. The initiative, the referendum, the recall, are protests against the abuse of power by the office holding and the office seeking crowd. These may be "radical," and impractical in some degree, but if they are the people will soon find a more practical way to get what they must have—the right to rule the rulers. What the people want is to simplify the government, reduce the number of office holders and reduce the cost of salaries, and the opportunity for graft—to place a premium on efficiency and to forget the "spell binding" politician.

A long step is being made by the municipal government to get away from greed and graft and inefficiency by the "commission government" and the people are so pleased with this plan where it has had a fair trial that they are thinking seriously of trying it in state and nation. There is no doubt that one thorough going business man from each state could do far more as a congress than all the number we now maintain in that body. Some day we will try it. There is a better form of government than the bungling imitation of royalty which the Tory element in the constitutional convention bequeathed to us. When we work out a business method of government in the towns at home we may try it in the state and the nation. Of course the politicians will squirm and squeal and protest and proclaim, but these things now have less weight with the people. In the commission form of government at home we have an opportunity to forget all our past differences, our partisan politics, our personal ambitions, and combine for the execution of a simple plan of government which applies common sense, business methods, to what has been known as "politics." The one trouble in the Commission form is to find the men who are able and at the same time will to do the work. When the people begin to look for them they are, impressed as the old widower was who took a notion that he would better get married. After a few days of canvass he made report that "Such as I want I can't get, and such as I can get the devil would not have." The truth is the men who take the management of a commission form of government and make it go must make a business sacrifice. Fortunately there are those who can and will do this. There is a big streak of patriotism in the human heart, and when the real successful business man is appealed to by his fellows it will assert itself, and he will work. Try it out here in Ada. Look up the most far sighted and clear headed, the most right hearted and successful business men to be found, and make the appeal to them, and my word for it they will yield. Let's shun the man who wants the job, or who needs the salary, and hunt the man who will be willing to make a personal sacrifice to do the city's work.

THE McALESTER RAILROAD

NEIGHBORING CITY WILL CONSIDER MATTER AT MEETING THIS EVENING.

McAlester, Ok., April 9.—The railroad committee recently appointed to take preliminary steps for the organization of a company for the construction of a northeast-southwest railroad through McAlester, has after many conferences and much deliberation, announced that it will report to the mass meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at the district court room.

The committee felt that it would be better not to give out an incomplete report of the recommendations it is prepared to make. Nor did it care to make premature publication of plans, even if they could be fully set forth in a newspaper article.

But those who have followed the papers lately can conjecture that there will be something doing at the meeting.

The northeast-southwest line of railroad would cross many roads and open a fine territory.

It is known that the Midland Valley has paid for a certified copy of the deeds of the right-of-way of the Sallisaw, McAlester and Southwest-ern.

It is also known that the Oklahoma Central promoters have had representatives here.

This indicates nibbles at both ends of the line.

The people of McAlester are confident that this road ought to be built somehow by somebody and there is no question about the courthouse being crowded Tuesday night to hear the report from the committee.

SHAWNEE GETS KATY FREIGHT DIVISION

Shawnee is to get the local freight division of the Katy. The road asked for a free site for its terminals and the city lost no time in agreeing to donate it. The News-Herald is much elated over the deal and says that it will probably be only a short time until shops are built.

Campbell Bros.' Show.

The Campbell Brothers circus and menagerie which visited Loup City Tuesday of this week upheld its former reputation as being the cleanest, best managed, and purest show of the kind on the road. Being a product of Nebraska owned and controlled by Nebraska boys, who are courteous, gentlemanly and obliging fellows, it appeals to our people and as a result the big tent was comfortably filled with the best of our people, who applauded to the echo a performance excellent from start to finish. One graceful and grateful feat on the part of the management, and one ever to be remembered by our people, was the arranging the route of the big parade at the request of the writer so that it might pass the homes of the editor and others whose little ones were shut in by quarantine, thus giving the little household angels a glimpse of the child's paradise from which they were temporarily banished. It was a kindness that was heartily appreciated and happily commented on. One of the most noteworthy things about this good show is the entire absence of the following of gamblers, confidence men and short-changers, such undesirable citizens being banished. Another good point is the carrying with the show a Red Cross tent and competent physician—a thoughtful provision. All in all, Campbell Bros. show is commendable in all its appointments and future visits desired. —Loup City (Neb.) Northwestern.

THIRD PARTY POSSIBILITY

BEING DISCUSSED BY LEADING POLITICIANS OF BOTH OLD PARTIES.

Washington, April 9.—Will there be a third party after the Chicago convention if Taft wins the nomination?

This question is giving the regular, standpat Republicans food for considerable thought just now.

While much of the talk of bolts after the Chicago convention and much of the third party talk that has been heard recently has been put out by the McKinley campaign management for the purpose of trying to hurt Colonel Roosevelt, it is nevertheless a fact that the third party question is giving leading politicians of both the old parties not a little concern. In this connection there has arisen a good deal of talk lately of a possible third party movement in which two men, powerful in their respective parties, might be conspicuous. These two men are William Bryan and Robert La Follette.

Hardly probable as it seems, it is a fact that one can hear not a little talk in well-informed quarters about Washington at this time on this text.

"What if a new party arises and nominates La Follette and Bryan for President and vice president or Bryan and La Follette?"

It is pointed out that such a ticket, whether headed by one man or the other, would appeal to numbers of progressive republicans and of progressive democrats. It would be a combination that would tax severely both the old parties. Some who have given the matter thought believe that if it shall turn out that President Taft is renominated at Chicago and a conservative democrat is nominated at Baltimore, and a Bryan and La Follette combination can be formed, it will be the beginning of a complete revolution in parties of the United States and will soon result in the establishment of a liberal and a conservative party, with abolishment of the republican and democratic parties.

The most widely varying views are entertained among politicians as to a third party movement and the effect of it. Many of the old guard republicans would welcome such a movement. They say it would get rid of the republican insurgents, and that the insurgents would cause them less trouble out of the republican party than it in. Some of the old guard democrats feel the same way about getting rid of the insurgent or progressive democrats. What would worry the old guard politicians, however, would be the uncertainty as to just how the remnants of the old parties would be affected, and whether there might follow it a complete breaking up of the old parties. Socialists the country over would deeply regret a new third party movement. In the present troubled situation of republicans and democrats, so long as there is no third party newly formed, the socialists' great hope of big gains for themselves.

Much of the third party talk, however, proceeds without recognizing the fact that not many republican or democratic leaders are willing to take the plunge and leave their old political alliances. Senator La Follette has repeatedly said that he could fight most effectively within the republican party, seeking to reform it from within, and not from without. This is the attitude taken by most of the conspicuous leaders whether in the republican or democratic party. A third party movement, if it comes will have largely to proceed from the rank and file and not from prominent old party leaders, according to the present outlook.

WHY IT FIGHTS TEDDY.

"If The Journal is so sure that Mr. Roosevelt is already beaten," writes a Kansas reader, "why does it and the other big papers, most of which seem to be for Taft, continue to fight Roosevelt so hard?"

The question is a fair one, and one easily answered. Colonel Roosevelt's main purpose now is to defeat Taft not in June but in November. To that end he is striving ardently, relentlessly, savagely. To oppose and expose Roosevelt now, therefore, is to oppose the democratic party in the fall campaign. The more he can divide and disrupt the republican party the weaker it will be in its fight against democracy. Certainly every good republican paper should try to block this scheme of personal vengeance and party ruin.—Kansas City Journal.

CRITICAL POINT IN

MISSISSIPPI FLOOD

The crisis in the Mississippi valley's tremendous flood is imminent. Chief anxiety last night centered in the situation along the river reaching south of Memphis. If the dikes of Arkansas, Mississippi and North Louisiana hold for another thirty-six hours, then the thousands of persons these embankments protect, and the hundreds of workmen who have labored to strengthen the levees for the supreme struggle against the yellow tide's greatest stress, will breathe with relief.

The strife of the next thirty-six hours will decide whether scenes of suffering and distress along the upper Mississippi will be re-enacted in the fertile valleys of the delta and yazoo south of Memphis. State and government officials say the dikes on the eastern bank will withstand the tremendous pressure that will be exerted by the flood's crest. Nevertheless, they are apprehensive and fears of breaks along the dikes was shown last night by reports of the abandonment of homes and villages in the lowlands from Helena south ward.

It was decided to hold the meetings of the local camp of sons on the night of the first Friday in each month hereafter, it being thought that that hour will suit more of the members than the present one.

SHARE IN PROFITS

System Which Might Eliminate Labor Disturbances.

Is Plan of L. D. Brandels—How Boston Grocers Flourished After They Gave Their Employees Real Incentive to Efficiency.

Boston, Mass.—John T. Connor is an employer who sees the human side of employment. In his method of operating a chain of 105 grocery stores in and around Boston he believes he has a solution of labor troubles which, if adopted by other employers, would eliminate the necessity of strikes and labor unions.

Mr. Connor, as head of the John T. Connor company, has been in business for about a dozen years, starting with four stores, but his success has come mainly in the last few years. About five years ago he became interested in profit sharing from reading news items on the subject and from actual cases where he had seen the project tried. But at that time the profits of his business seemed not to warrant sharing them.

By 1909, however, the business had grown largely and the net returns were much more satisfactory, determining him to give the plan a trial. "So I went to Louis D. Brandels," says Mr. Connor in telling the story, and asked him to help me. He whipped a system into shape in a couple of interviews, making little out of what had seemed quite a problem to me. And incidentally let me tell you Louis D. Brandels is one of the greatest men in this country today."

"Mr. Brandels' plan was simple, after it was evolved, and has worked very smoothly. He divided the business into departments, each of which with the exception of one, contained a group of stores. The remaining department included the central office, warehouse and shipping end of the business. One-half the profit shares are held by the company, the other half by the employees, of which there are now 800.

At the end of the year the profits of each department are calculated, and, in general, the employees in the stores of the departments which have produced the most net gain receive the largest percentage of results. But Mr. Connor does not believe in carrying out the scheme literally—that is, by making employees suffer if in departments which have not shown large profits—so under the way he administers the system every one is bound to get some share.

The practical results of the system were fully illustrated the other night when at a monthly meeting of the employees' association the sum of $17,000, representing exactly one-half the company's net profits for the past year, was divided among them. Every one who had been with the firm for a year or more, from the order boys to the highest paid officials, received something, the amounts varying from $5 to $1,000. The money was given to them in the form of bank deposits, as an encouragement to thrift.

The first year the plan was tried $11,000 was distributed among the sharers who are employees, and last year $15,000 was given them. In addition to holding certificates entitling them to shares the clerks and others have this year adopted a neat little button bearing the inscription, "Profit Sharer."

SPEND $500 OVER $8 HOG

Kentucky Mountaineers, After Long Litigation Over "Razor-back," Ordered by Court to Divide Costs.

Hazard, Ky.—After years of litigation, involving expenses aggregating a hundred times the value of the property at stake, the locally famous "Ains-Combs hog case," being a case in which two mountain neighbors agreed to submit their differences to a jury, has resulted in a "dog-fall" in the circuit court. The hog was valued at $8 at the beginning of the suit, but is now deceased. The court costs amount to a trifle over $500 besides the attorneys' fees. Two verdicts have been awarded at different times and the last action was concerning the cost. The court decided that each side should bear its own.

Court Upsets Coin Flip.

Watertown, N. Y.—Despite the fact that A. R. Peacock and Gilbert Rafferty, New York millionaires, flipped a coin to decide who should own a valuable piece of summer resort property at the Thousand Islands, which, as a result, Peacock was to have free, it was decided by a supreme court decision here that Rafferty owns the land.

Both men are summer visitors at the island, where Rafferty owns valuable property. After giving Peacock a portion for a boathouse, Peacock asked for another section. The men met in the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York, and it was decided to flip a coin to see whether Peacock should pay $1,500 for the land or get it free. He won.

The location of the land became a question. Rafferty contending that he deeded a piece of land not the one which Peacock won by the flip. His contention was sustained.

Man Thought to Have Been Drowned.

Holdenville, Okla., April 8.—About fifty men are searching the crossing on Little River, about fifteen miles west of here, for the body of Jim Sneed, a prosperous farmer who is supposed to have been drowned in the swollen waters of that stream Sunday afternoon. Sneed came to Holdenville early in the way and started home about 2 p. m. He was seen a short distance from the river crossing and his horses tracks could be traced into the ford and out on the other side, but no trace has been found of the man. The recent rains have raised the stream greatly, but the missing man successful swam his horse across when coming to town. The search will be continued throughout the night.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL

The council held its usual meeting Monday evening, and passed an ordinance for putting down sidewalks in every place where they were ordered put down on previous occasions and where the property owners have not complied with the order. The city will now build these walks and the cost charged to the owners and collected with their taxes. The ordinance giving the description of the lots affected will be published in tomorrow's paper.

It was decided to take up the matter of compelling the Katy to pay for lights at its crossings with the corporation commission.

The report of the appraisers appointed to assess the damage accruing to property owners as a result of closing Stockton avenue for depot purposes was taken up and adopted. Settlement will be made at once with those who accept the findings of the board.

It was also voted to settle at once all claims growing out of the Byrd's Mill line controversy where judgment has been entered and other approved claims of similar nature.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of this remedy from your druggist today, and see what it will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle. Special Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

WILL BUILD A NEW TOWN IN ROGER MILLS

The Clinton & Oklahoma Western Railway company has decided to develop a large town at its terminus on the thirty-mile extension, six miles due north of the town of Cheyenne and in almost the geographical center of Roger Mills county. The company has acquired 480 acres of land at the place, which is now being platted into business and residence lots and which will be placed on the market June 15. The name of the terminus town will be Strong City in honor of C. R. Strong, general superintendent of the line.

President J. M. Maney states that among the commercial institutions already applying for locations are two banks, three lumber yards and a number of first-class mercantile institutions, prominent among which is that of Herring and Going who are at present operating large stores at Elk City, Faust and Cheyenne. The new stations from Butler west will be designated as follows: McClure, named after Chief Engineer McClure of this city; Red Moon, Herringville and Strong City. President Maney also states that the line will be ready for the pile drivers by April 20.

NORRIS GOES TO TRIAL AT FORT WORTH, TEX.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 8.—Hearing of evidence in the case of Rev. J. Frank Norris, on trial for perjury, will begin in the Sixty-Seventh District Court early tomorrow morning.

A jury was impaneled today during a session which lasted from 9 a. m. until 6:30 p. m., with an intermission for lunch and the first witness will be examined at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

A jury was obtained by drawing the names of 100 voters from the wheel and examining them according to the manner in vogue in civil cases. When thirty-two has been passed by both the state and the defense, both sides used their peremptory challenges, twenty in number, and the twelve who were left were sworn in and placed in charge of a Deputy Sheriff, to be kept together while the trial lasts and to be treated in a manner similar to that for juries in murder cases.

As soon as the jury had been impaneled Assistant County Attorney Baldwin read the indictment and the formal plea of "not guilty" was made for Rev. Mr. Norris by O. S. Latimore, one of his attorneys. The defendant was in the court room, but

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

The usual symptoms of Scrofula are enlarged glands of the neck, sores and ulcers on the body, skin affections, catarrhal troubles, weak eyes, and general poor health. The inherited poison, transmitted through the blood, pollutes and weakens this fluid, and in place of its nutritive qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter, which saps the vitality of the entire system. Thousands of children, born with a scrofulous taint, have spent their childhood in constant physical suffering, and grown to manhood or womanhood handicapped by ill health and stunted growth, and perhaps later some disease of the bones or joints developed. S. S. S., given in their early life, would have prevented this. It would have cleansed and purified the blood of the taint, nourished and strengthened their systems, and assisted each to grow into strong, healthy manhood or womanhood. S. S. S. is the very best remedy for Scrofula. It goes down to the bottom of the trouble, and cleanses the circulation of all scrofulous matter. It supplies the weak, diseased blood with strength and health-building qualities, and under the purifying effects of this great remedy all symptoms of Scrofula pass away. S. S. S. contains no minerals, in any form, and is an absolutely safe treatment for children, even infants, or persons of any age. Literature about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

promise a season of charming toilettes. The modes show enough of change to make them exceedingly interesting, but these changes, save in exceptional instances, are not revolutionary, do not run to bizarre extremes. Even the most distinct innovations are more often gracefully picturesque than freakish, and a very decided majority of the models from the most authoritative Paris makers are exceedingly wearable frocks, lovely without being sensational.

It is among the evening frocks and the dressy afternoon frocks that one finds the most daring experimenting with the new ideas and, at the same time, the most wonderful of the new materials. All the skirts have added fullness, but there are varying grades of it and fullness does not by any means necessarily imply drapery. Tailored skirts are, with few exceptions, almost as straight of line as they were last season, though they are not so narrow, thanks to skillfully introduced plaits and tunic arrangements. A majority of the simpler, short one-piece frocks also retain a straight and narrow skirt outline. The skirt, if the material allows, is fullest into the waistband, but it is so weighted and drawn down that it hangs comparatively straight and even when it is flounce trimmed, it does not have a bouffant effect.

Paquin has sent over some of the most interesting of the coquettish skirt draperies, and also has launched a number of accordion plaited skirts in very soft silks, falling perfectly straight and limp so that the outline is narrow as that of a plain skirt, yet perfect freedom of movement is made possible. One of her tailored models has appealed to almost all the importers and is tremendously clever in its adaptation of drapery on the punier order, to a material as heavy as serge and to tailored finish.

A very chic little cut-away coat whose tail is slightly draped belongs with the skirt, and though few women could wear the model well, it bespeaks cleverness. One importer shows this model in a black satin frock and red cloth coat, and though one cannot imagine a fastidious woman wearing it, it is exceedingly piquant.

Red is, by the way, a very important item among relieving colors and in bright shades, such as geranium and cardinal flashes in discreet touches upon even the most conservative frocks. With white and white and black combinations it is particularly pleasing. Some admirable results are obtained by using sheer white lingerie material such as marquisette or voile, or batiste, embroidered in red and black combination with solid black.

Serges, Bedford cords, whipcords and tweeds are the materials most frequently used in the wool tailored models and the cut-away coat is first favorite, though often the frons slope away but distinct. There are plenty of coats in which they do not slope at all, a fortunate thing for the woman who has failed to suppress her hips to the proper nuance.

Belted effects in coats, as in frocks, are extremely popular, but the belt need not go all the way around the waist and may be loose or simply drawn, so it can be adapted to widely different styles. It is undoubtedly true that in a large majority of the best new models waist lines are a trifle smaller as well as longer and the curves of the figure are more defined than have been during the past few seasons, but, as yet, the change is but slight and it remains to be seen how far the move-bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.

Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch, instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.

D. D. D. Prescription made by the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel soothed and cooled, the itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. D.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive no-pay guarantee.

ment will advance during the coming season.

Charmeuse and the other soft satin finish silks are still favored coat materials and some particularly lovely models of such materials are shown. In the deep ivory, biscuit and champagne shades, with hand embroidery, or lace in the same color and with handsome fastenings made of cords of the silks.

There are many beautiful coats of white charmeuse or dull finish satin too, coats intended for daytime rather than evening wear during the summer months. The smartest of these are made rather simply, with buttons and sash and with satin and with or without a little heavy, handsome lace about the collar and sleeves. Some of the best looking have no trimming at all save the satin, but are gracefully cut and lined with exquisite flowered chiffon in the dainty pompadour or pony designs.

Good looking coats of black charmeuse are made up on similar lines, and these, too, have the flowered chiffon lining. The lightest and sheerest of all rough silk or wool appear in white, lined with color makes smart cover-all coats for summer and reversible materials are made to give much the same effect. White, with a pale corn color lining, collar and cuffs, is a combination often seen and charmingly cool looking.

Long coats of soft, loosely woven linen in white and cream and string color, inset with heavy lace to match the linen color and more or less elaborated with hand embroidery, have been brought over by all the importers who cater to a fastidious clientele.

The changeable taffetas are in the foremost rank among fashionable materials. In Paris, as well as here, there is not a shop to be found which does not offer frocks, jackets or hats in that material. The afternoon frocks are particularly effective when of taffeta. Plain and striped combinations are lovely. The alliance of plain with changeable, flowered with stripes, bordered effects with plain and spotted panels with one-tone silks is most noticeable.

Borders remain in high favor, being acceptable in low, medium and high-priced fabrics, but are especially pretty in the new novelty dress goods that are seen so much now.

Round or square fitted neck pieces are seen on the collarless blouses, sometimes scalloped or otherwise embroidered, preferably in the Bulgarian or some other oriental style. The chiffon waists that harmonize with jackets and skirts are shown in a most fascinating combination of colors that blend perfectly with the plain cloth.

Although embroidery is used on everything possible for children, it is confined, generally, to the removable collars and cuffs of white ottoman silk, pique, or lingerie.

Cotton ratine is having a great vogue for misses' suits, with crystal or ball ivory buttons for trimming, and is one of the new tub materials now in great demand for shirt waists. White corduroy is being used in separate skirts and proves a most durable and practical material for that purpose.

END TRUANCY IN LOS ANGELES

Plan of Small Classes, With a Little Expert at the Head of Each, Makes High Attendance Record.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Through an entirely original idea of teaching work and play the board of education is fast reducing the work of the juvenile court in passing on truancy cases. The idea, as suggested by Professor E. J. Lickley, has reached the stage where there is now an average attendance of 99 per cent. for the entire year, in special ungraded schools made up of obstreperous boys.

The schools were started as an experiment following the assertion of W. L. Bodine, supervisor of compulsory education in Chicago, that there were more truants in Los Angeles than any other city in the United States.

"We had to do something to reduce the number of boys going before the juvenile court," said Professor Lickley, head of the department of compulsory education.

"There seems to be but one cure for the trouble, and we have at last found it. The remedy for such cases lies in grouping the boys in small classes, never more than 15 to a room, and putting them in charge of a man instructor who is in sympathy with the work. Not only must he know how to deal with boys, but he must be proficient in athletics to the extent that he can educate the boys in play as well as work."

COSTS MONEY TO BE MAYOR

English Officials Have to Be Satisfied With Glory and Honor—Liverpool Executive Well Paid.

London.—The mayors of London and their executive dignity much more expensive than the provincial mayors. In most of the cities and towns of the United Kingdom an amount is voted by the council sufficient to cover the ordinary expenses of the mayor. But in London it is different.

The lord mayor, of course, is in a class by himself. He gets an allowance of $50,000 for his year of office, and the average amount he has to add to that out of his own pocket is another $50,000. Outside the city of London proper, which is the lord mayor's district, London is divided into 28 metropolitan boroughs.

Of the provincial cities Liverpool is the most generous to its mayor, giving a fixed salary of $10,000, which is added to when extraordinary expenses are incurred. The Liverpool council also pays about $4,000 a year for horses and carriages. Birmingham, now the second largest city in the United Kingdom, made a grant for the mayor last year for the first time, fixing the sum at $5,000. Manchester, Sheffield, Leeds and Leicester, all places where the position of mayor necessarily entails a very considerable expense, make no grant.

CHANGE IN WEDDING RITUAL

New Amendment Agreed to by the Lower House of Convocation at Canterbury.

London.—The Canterbury lower house of convocation agreed to a modification of the marriage service by substituting the words, "Bestow we beseech thee, upon these two persons the heritage and gift of children" for the existing too plain spoken form.

Some objection was made to the change, but the general sentiment of the convocation was in favor of it.

The Dean of Winchester remarked that many passages of scripture would bring out higher ideals than are expressed in the words of Peter and Paul, who had ideas about wives that Christianity has largely altered.

The house of convocation of York has called upon the government to forbid the disseminating of Mormonism in the United Kingdom.

Too Giddy at 70. Philadelphia, Pa.—Robert Aspinwall 70 years old, took out a license to marry Mrs. Mary Pope, 60, but before the prospective bride would sign her name to the application she turned to her aged wooer and asked:

"Robert, are you willing to keep your promise that you will not run around nights after we are married?"

When he had promised Mrs. Pope explained to the marriage license clerk:

"I have been married twice before and my other husbands used to wander from their own firesides. I am getting a little old now and I don't propose to be alone at night."

Mr. Aspinwall said that he also had been married twice before, and said he didn't care to run around much any more.

Mocking Dog can Crow. Evansville, Ind.—Noble Stallings living at New Harmony, has a dog that imitates the crowing of a rooster closely. When the dog was only a few weeks old he began to take notice of the crowing of roosters early in the morning and he began to imitate them.

Called Son Laziest Boy. Chicago.—Denounced by his mother as the laziest boy in Chicago, Herman Davis, 17 years of age, who eats, sleeps and attends nickel shows, has been turned over to the juvenile court.
